

A long time ago, a spaceman walked up on the moon to see if life may have formed there. He started harvesting some of the moons glittering stone. Suddenly he felt something behind him. He turned around he felt he knew there was something there but He just couldn't see anything... when he went back to what he was doing he went over to a different spot he found it a giant crater with something in it it looked like an egg picked it up felt it crack out came a slimy, little alien. He had giant razor sharp teeth that could cut you to shreds he dropped the alien started to run away. The alien followed him very quietly but carefully staying out of sight. 48 hours later The alien was very hungry, hungry enough to eat a whole man he shouted noises to see if his mam was around to help him...

After long hours of exploring the rocky surface he suddenly found his mum they both wandered and wandered but couldn't find him. He was looking for more unusual eggs like the last one he found in the huge crater on the glittering sparkling moon. Suddenly the light blossomed into a silver moon path flowing onto the sea. Mean while they were still hunting him and now the moon was gleaming blood red. Down on Earth they could now see the space man and the two aliens in the blood moon until then he will be chased and chased...
